Deliberate Negotiations over Reckless Confrontation
A statement by Rev. Jesse L. Jackson, Sr.

CHICAGO – We must not have guided missiles and misguided leadership. We must choose deliberate negotiations over reckless confrontation.

North Korea is a wild card. A military conflict with the enigmatic nation could quickly escalate into a world-wide conflagration.

We should not roll the dice with nuclear war.

I hope and pray that President Donald Trump does not want to go down in history for helping to start World War III. That is if there is anyone left to write the story.
